

Conservation Workshop:
Tools, Techniques and Local Maps
To Enhance Natural Resource Protection

Arrowsic, Bath, Bowdoin, Bowdoinham, Brunswick,
Dresden, Georgetown, Harpswell, Phippsburg,
Richmond, Topsham, West Bath, and Woolwich

When: Wednesday, March 10, 6:30 – 8:00 PM

Where: West Bath Fire Station, 192 State Road, West Bath

For Whom: Local officials, town committee members, land trust representatives and interested citizens

Cost: Free and refreshments served

Sponsors: Sagadahoc Region Rural Resource Initiative (SRRRI) Steering Committee and Midcoast Council of Governments (MCOG)

Sign up: Not required but appreciated.
Contact MCOG at 443-5790, ext. 10, or mcbdp@mcbdp.org

Topics: A new Guidebook and related natural resource maps will be distributed.

Presentations about practical steps towns can take to protect:

- Water resources and riparian habitat
- Large blocks of forest
- Rare habitats and exemplary natural communities
- Farmland
- Trails

Presenters: Rich Rothe, Midcoast Council of Governments
Katrina Van Dusen, SRRRI Steering Committee
Steve Walker, Beginning with Habitat, ME IF&W
SRRRI representatives from area towns